Precision with ease for a seamless installation

When you don't have the possibility of installing your video wall on the wall, Vogel's offers the solution of mounting your video wall using a floor-to-ceiling solution. This is possible with Vogel's modular Connect-it system. Combine the floor/ceiling mounting plates with Connect-it PUC 29 poles, one or more display interface plates and display interface strips to create a seamless and perfect video wall. With ease of installation in mind, Vogel's has designed a unique, adjustable, floor-to-ceiling mounting plate. This floor-to-ceiling mounting plate makes it possible to perfectly install a PUC 29 pole vertically. A function has been built into this floor-to-ceiling mounting plate, making it possible to correct any unevenness on the floor up to  $\pm 3$  degrees. How easy is that? The display interface strips used when mounting video walls enjoy maximum adjustability and can be adjusted in three directions (3D).
